

Rocky Mountain National--Estes Park Makes Your Ideal Vacation Possible!

Visitors to Rocky Mountain National--Estes Park, Colorado, all say that the reality far exceeds their hopes and that the Park must be seen to be appreciated. It consists of 100,000 pine-forested acres, the whole of which combined to offer you any kind of diversion that you may prefer.

There is golf and tennis for those who like the sports, and riding and motoring for others, and there is camping-out for those who want to "rough it." Two million native and rainbow trout are introduced into the streams each year, and scarcely a day's journey from the Park is one of the wildest sections of the Rockies, abounding in deer, bear, mountain lions and wolves.

I would like to tell you about the side-trips, the mountains to scale, the canyons to explore, the unusual wild flowers, the hotel service, the cottage arrangement, the facilities for camping, and the daylight journey to and from the Park. Drop in at the office and I can then tell you how much the trip you are planning will cost, and suggest many useful arrangements, or, if more convenient, send your address on a postal and I will answer by sending you our folder on Rocky Mountain National--Estes Park, containing excellent pictures, maps and reading matter.

E. A. Evans Appointed Judge.

The President sent to the Senate yesterday the nomination of Evan A. Evans, of Baraboo, Wis., to be circuit judge for the Seventh circuit, to succeed the late Judge Seaman, who died last year. The nomination of Mr. Evans ends a long contest for the office.

FORTY NEW YORK VOTES ARE CLAIMED FOR ROOT

Senator Wadsworth, Head of Boom,
Predicts Big Showing on First Ballot at Chicago Convention.

Former Senator Elihu Root will have at least forty votes out of the New York delegation on the first ballot in the Chicago convention, according to an estimate made yesterday by Senator James Wadsworth, Jr. The Senator expects many votes from other States from the list of unattached delegates, with an increasing number of accessions as the balloting proceeds.

Senator Wadsworth was kept busy yesterday explaining to his colleagues and the former colleagues of Mr. Root just what his relation is to the Root movement. Senator Wadsworth denied that he was to have charge of Washington headquarters, as was stated in New York dispatches yesterday morning. The Senator is ready to assume full responsibility for doing whatever he can to promote Mr. Root's candidacy among Senators and Representatives in Congress, but there will be no branch headquarters in Washington.

Several Senators predicted yesterday that Senator Root will lead on the first ballot in the convention if he permits his name to be formally presented. He is particularly strong in New England. It was explained yesterday that the Connecticut and Rhode Island delegations are very friendly to him and that he will have strength in the States of Maine and New Hampshire.

tion and mutual interest in one another. It does not flourish in the soil of hostility and antagonism, and a world war is a war in the presence of which civilization holds its breath and wonders if it will itself survive.

"As we see these great issues joined, we on this side of the water are done this great service: we are reminded of our spiritual relation not only to this great nation, but particularly to this great nation which we constitute here, and our spiritual relation to the rest of the world is determined by our spiritual relations to America."

Faith in Foreign Born.

"You have heard a great deal about the hyphen. I for one have never been deceived. The number of persons of really divided allegiance in this country is very small, and if I had been born in some other country, I for one, would resent the representations which have been made by those who were not the spokesmen of those for whom they pretended to speak in suggesting a divided allegiance. I have never had the slightest doubt of what would happen when America called upon those of her citizens born in other countries to come to the support of the flag.

"Why, they will come with cheers, they will come with a momentum which will make us realize that America has once more been cried awake out of every sort of distemper and dream and distraction, and that any man who dares tamper with the spirit of America will be cast out of the confidences of a great nation upon the instant.

"I believe that a certain spiritual regeneration is going to come out of this thing. We have been thinking too much about our individual selves and too little about the country of which we constitute a part, and one of the services which you ladies are going to render is to show how, upon no summons at all, upon the mere offering of the opportunity, women will come together to render those inestimable services which are necessary if the country gets into any sort of trouble."

Camp Formally Opened.

The camp, the first of its kind in the world, was formally opened yesterday afternoon, when the President and Mrs. Wilson, passing before the 200 girls, who stood at attention, entered the grandstand which had been erected at the camp near the flag staff overlooking Connecticut avenue in Maryland. To the strains of the "Star Spangled Banner," the flag, boldly straining at its halyards, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. Barnett released it in the fresh breeze, was slowly raised to its position at the top of the staff, and Dr. Randolph Harrison McKim delivered an invocation.

Mrs. Ellis Logan, in a very brief address, introduced the President, and with his speech the ceremonies concluded. Secretary of War Baker and Secretary of the Navy Daniels occupied seats in the stand, and behind them were the members of the executive committee and their families.

The feature of the camp this afternoon will be addresses in the Assembly Tent by Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Mine Slicko Grouitch, and Mrs. Vylla Poe Wilson. The addresses will begin at 3:30 and are open to the public.

WASHINGTON MEN OFFERED A TREAT IN FINE CLOTHES

Seldom have the dressy men of Washington been offered such a treat in fine clothing as is presented by the opportunity offered by M. Stein & Co., the well-known tailors at Eighth and F streets. This firm has fortunately secured quite a good assortment of the very scarce Drummond worsteds from the house of J. Drummond & Sons, Ltd., of London, and are offering fashionably cut spring suits to measure from these fine fabrics at twenty dollars. We do not remember of having heard of Drummond suits being sold before under $35 and $40 and for this reason believe this offer of Stein's to be without a parallel in the history of merchant tailoring.

Prominent business and professional men are among the many who are taking advantage of this offer, Mr. Stein says. In fact, as he states, it is an opportunity that appeals particularly to the high class man who knows and appreciates the value of Drummond worsteds.
